Longstreet Defeats the Great Racer by Eight Lengths.

THOUSANDS OF DOLLARS WAGERED.

A Fair Race That Satisfied the Owner of the Losing Horse That His Animal Was Not the Better of the Two.

New York, Aug. 1 .- The much-talkedof and delayed race between Mr. Pulsifer's swayback horse Tenny and Mr. M. W. Dwyer's Longstreet took place at Morris Park to-day, and resulted in an easy victory for Longstreet by eight lengths. Twenty-five thousand people were present, many of whom had jour neyed from all parts of the Union to see it run and satisfy themselves as to the superior animal of the two. While as a race it was hardly the contest many had expected to see, nevertheless it was a good contest, and proved conclusively that the great swayback is no match for the Dwyer candidate. In fact, this opinion is shared by Mr. Pulsifer himself, who, when seen after the race, gave it as his opinion. In the betting Tenney opened at 9 to ten, while Longstreet could be backed at even money. The public money then began to go on Tenny, forcing his price down even, while Longstreet kept steadily receding until just before they went to the nost, when 6 to 5 could be had against him. Suddenly a low-sized, dark complexioned youth was seen stealing behind a bookmaker's box to the right of the ring. He was instantly recognized by a select few as "Circular Joe," M. W. Dwyer's commissioner. He lost no time in putting on the money, it going at hundreds at a clip, until he placed nearly $10,000 on Longstreet. that the great swayback is no match THE GREAT RACE BEGINS.

The first break looked to be a good start, but Longstreet, for some reason, refused to go on and the flag failed to fall. In the next attempt he tried the same trick, but a good rousing from Hamilton got him in motion' and the word was given with the son of Longfellow half a length in front. He soon made it a length, and at the end of a quarter it was two; in fact, every stride seemed to bring him farther away. Seeing this, Barnes began to urge Tenny, and just as he breasted the hill he seemed to gain on the leader, and as he did so his backers grew wild with delight. Short-lived was their glee, however, for Longstreet soon began to draw away again, and at the end of the mile it was seen he would win. Whip and sbur as Barnes might, Tenny could not gain an inch for the rest of the journey, and a dozen jumps from the end he began to pull up. Hamilton saw this and let up on Longstreet a trifle, still not enough to take any chances, and at the end was the winner by eight lengths in 2:07\frac{1}{2}.

"Mike" Dwyer saw the race from the the timers' stand, and he was highly plensed with the success of his representative. He was heartily congratuated, and said the result was what he had expected. He had told his friends that Longstreet would win, and in doing so he felt that he was jelling them to back the best horse he ever owned. He also said he was willing to give Colonel Pulsifer another chance to beat him if he wanted it. He also said that he would probably change the winner's name to Rock Ledge, which is the title of his hotel property in Florido. Tenny's owner was seen after the race, and said he was satisfied the race had been a true one with a well earned victory for Longstreet, and while he had no excuse to offer for his own horse, he attributed his defeat to the fact that Longstreet was a better horse than he had the post heavet he will be there was same trick, but a good rousing from tributed his defeat to the fact that Longstreet was a better horse than he had thought him, and while there was some talk of another race, he said he was through.

MOBRULE AT A CONVENTION.

The Miller and Platt Factions in Senson County, New York, Have a How. Oswego, Aug. 1.—Never in the history of Seneca county has there been such an exciting Republican County Convention as that of yesterday at Romulus. At the point of a pistol Daputy Sheriff Nicholson prevented the Miller men from battering down the doors leading to the convention hall. The fight was between the Miller and Platt factions. The Miller crowd was lead by Mr. Patterson, the millionaire manufacturer of Waterloo, and the Platt faction by J. H. Mongin, partner of w. Senator. Sweet.

terson, the millionaire manufacturer of Waterloo, and the Platt faction by J. H. Mongin, partner of ex-Senator Sweet. The convention was for the purpose of naming delegates to the State judicial and Senatorial conventions. Last night the delegates began to arrive. At 11 o'clock to-day a meeting of the County Committee was called in the hall. Twelve o'clock was the hour named for the opening of the County Convention.

A few minutes before that hour loud cheering was heard, and the Miller men began to realize that the Platt men were in session. They tried the front doors, but they were barred. The cry was sent up, "batter in the doors." A big plank was obtained and used for a battering ram. As the doors yielded to the blows, Deputy Sheriff Nicholson jumped upon a box and, drawing and cocking his revolver, leveled it at the ring leaders and threatened to shoot if they did not desist. The ram was abandoned, and as the crowd turned to leave, Colonel Manning called for an open air convention.

"We will meet at the point of the pistol," he cried out dramatically, and the Miller-Patterson crowd surrounded him. There was no roll call or credentials of any kind and the mob voted. The excitement grew and the crowd on the outside stoned the building to their heart's content, breaking nearly all of the windows.

The present mayor, Sullivan, was elected two years ago over General John Coburn by almost 2,000 majority. So that in the absence of crooked ballot box methods, Mr. Herod stands very little chance of an election.

Although noisy beyond comparison at times, taken as a whole it was a very tame convention. The only real enthusiasm was when Blaine's name was mentioned. The administration "was in it" just a little bit. Postmaster Thompson, District Attorney Chambers, Deputy Cochran, and other Federal officers, formed a background on the stage. Deputy Cochran, and other Federal offi-cers, formed a background on the stage. When Blaine's name was mentioned by the chairman it was greeted uproar-jously, and three cheers and a tiger were given with a will, and although Harrison's name was enthusiastically received it was evident that Blaine was the favorite of the convention.

The Plumed Kuight Is n Better Health

Than He Has Been for Years.

BEDFORD, Aug. 2.—Steve Elkins, who is perhaps as close to James G. Blaine, both socially and politically, as any other man in the country, left here today. Mr. Elkins was seen at the station and asked about the health of Mr. Blaine. His reply was that at the present time Mr. Blaine was in better health than for some years back. He said that all Mr. Blaine needed was rest.

In reply to the question as to whether he thought Mr. Blaine would be a candidate for the Presidency, and whether thought Mr. Blaine would accept, if nominated, Mr. Elkins asked that he be excused from answering the questions, and requested that the reporters be particular to report him in the matter correctly.

Not satisfied yet, the Rays drove to their home, half a mile north of Dialton, and got into an altercation with their aged and decrepit father. They threw stones at him and knocked him down. The injuries to the old gentleman are quite serious. One of the worst injuries is an ugly wound on the head. The frightened mother frantically rang the dinner bell, and numtically rang the dinner bell, and num-bers of the neighbors responded and squelched the fracas.

The Major is worth at least $500,000. He owns 110 business blocks and residences, besides acres of valuable city and suburban lots. SHAKEN BY DYNAMITE.

A Shock Which Incendiaries Gave the Inhabitants of an Indiana Town.

Anderson, Aug. 2 .- At an early hour this morning Pendleton, a small town eight miles southwest of this city, was shaken as if by an earthquake. It came without warning, and its suddenness was only equaled by its terrible results. A frame building on the principal street in the town was blown to atoms by dynamite.

Dr. Frank Stone and J. C. Manning, The latter a deputy prosecuting attorney of this county, had an office in the building. There is no clue to the guilty party, although it is thought some one whom Manuing has prosecuted fired the charge. Nobody was injured.

Especially is this true of the eastern part of the county. Oats and re are very materially injured and the clover is almost entirely ruined. The insects are now turning their attention to the corn, and grave fears are felt for the result, although some farmers claim that they will die before injuring that cereal to any great extent. In any event a portion of the corn will be so riddled as to be of no value whatever for fodder.

THE LONELY JOURNEY

Of Captain Andrews in His Little Vessel, BALTIMORE, Aug. 2.—Captain The Morgan, in command of the steel steamship Sobraon, which arrived here Thursday evening from Liverpool, reports that at about 7 o'clock July 24 he sighted a small boat shead with sails set. Supposing it was a boat's crew from a shipwreck, he bore down upon it. To his astonishment there was but one man in the boat, and he seemed perfectly at ense.

The man brought his little craft alongside the Sobraon, and entered into conversation with Captain Morgan. He said he was Captain Andrews, that his boat was the Mermaid, and that he had boat was the Mermaid and that he had started in a race scross the ocean from Boston to Landsend, England, with a boat the same size calied the Sea Serpent. He had then been out thirty days. As the Sobraon was north latitude 42° 50′, west longitude 30° 12′, Captain Andrews was about 2.146 miles from his destination. By request Captain Morgan received the logbook of the lonely mariner up to the date of meeting the Sobraon, to be forwarded to a Boston paper. It was mailed to-day.

meeting the Sobraon, to be forwarded to a Boston paper. It was mailed to-day.

Captain Morgan says the courageous mariner was well and in good spirits; was short of nothing needed, but regretted having been out so long. When the two parted company the weather was cloudy, with a light breeze from the northwest, and when last seen the Mermaid was sailing with a flowing sheet. A shark had been following the Mermaid for days, and when she made fast to the Sobraon the two pilot fish which had preceded her for the same time and belonged to the shark, secreted themselves beneath the tiny craft until she got under way, when they renewed their places just ahead.

The logbook contained but little of interest except Captain Andrews interest except Captain Androws' meeting with the California, which supplied him with a little heavy weather medicine. He regretted not being able to shoot the sun for days to ascertain his certified. his position.

The Wool Market.

The leading wool markets are show-ing considerable activity for this season of the year, and manufacturers are preparing to turn out more goods than they have heretofore. The feeling among dealers generally is that the month of August will show a heavy movement in all domestic wools. Pulled lambs' wool is beginning to arrive, and receipts are not held long by dealers before they are taken. It is very difficult to find any of last year's pulled wool in eastern markets. The feeling in Ohio and Michigan wools is growing stronger. Texas, California and territory wools are in good demand, and the sales are large for July. The quantity held by dealers is very small compared with that of preceding years. Buying in the West is still limited, owing to the unwillingness of growers to accept terms offered by to turn out more goods than paring still limited, owing to the unwillingness of growers to accept terms offered by buyers. The present indications do not seem to warrant dealers in asserting that the new wools are not worth last year's prices. Manufacturers are not intending to lower prices on their goods, and hence it is believed they can pay the same figures for material. The goods, and mene it is believed the year pay the same figures for material. The demand for Australian wool has not been as strong as during the preceding week. Values romain unchanged. It is announced that the Sydney sales open September 1.

COME MERCHANTS would have you believe that trade enters a condition of torpidity about July 1, and re-wains so till the cool days of September wake it to life and activity again.

But, begging your pardon, that & is not true. There is no season of the year in which people do not buy goods; there is no season in which they do not want them. By the same token, there is no season in which it will not pay to advertise. However, if your neighbor has this old-fashioned notion, and is too conservative to advertise now, there is all the better chance for you. If you think people are not hunting bargains in warm weather, try it. Everybody is not out of town,
